Sports facilities and cultural-integration places

Krakow sightseeing – The Krakow Royal Route

The Royal Route begins by St Florian's Church with the main entrance to the Old City – St Florian's Gate (no 1). Walking along Florianska we reach the Main Square – the largest public square of medieval Europe, dominated by huge Gothic St Mary's Church (no 2). Every hour from its taller tower we can hear a trumpeter playing the famous Krakow bugle-call. Inside the church we can admire its greatest highlight of Wit Stwosz (no 3) – the largest Gothic altar in Europe. Opposite to the temple the Momument to romantic poet Adam Mickiewicz (no 4) is situated. In the centre of the Main Square there is the Sukiennice (no 5) – a rare example of a medieval structure that has for centuries served as a commercial centre.

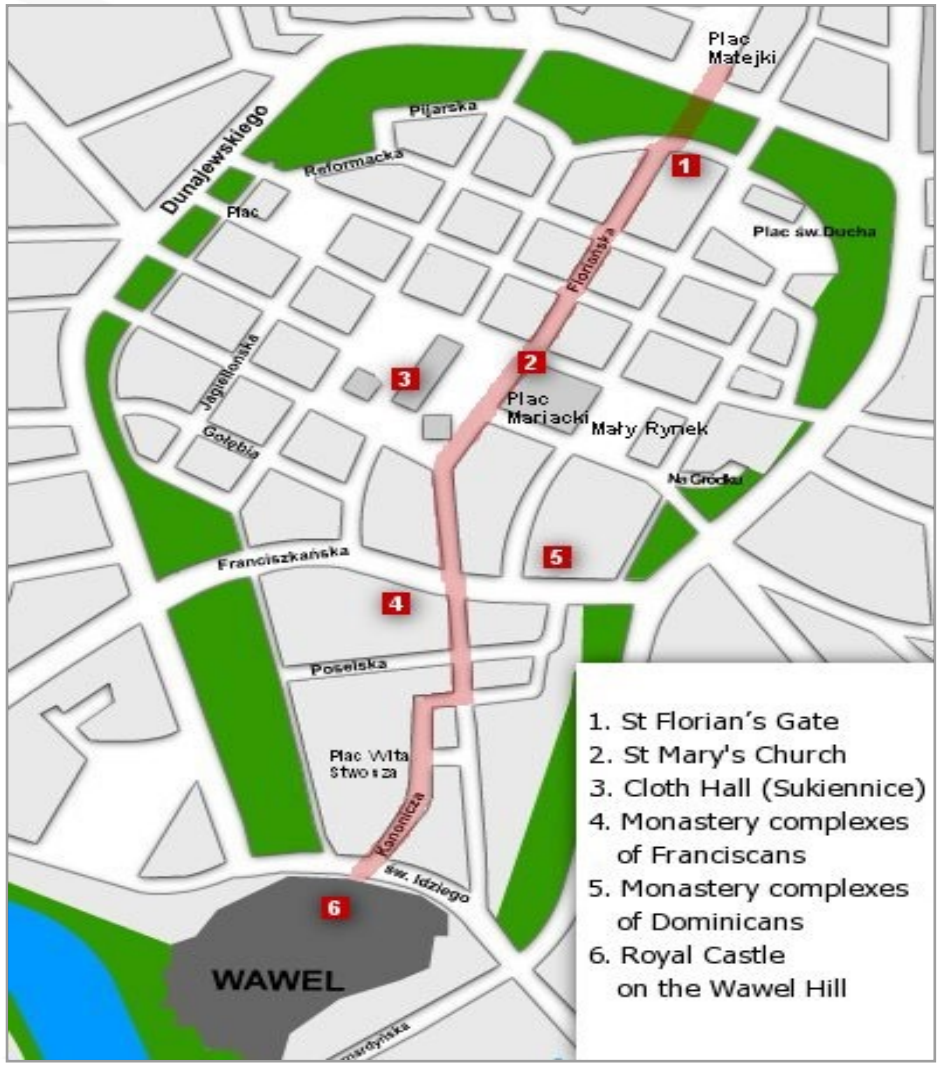
Krakow sightseeing – The Krakow Royal Route

Leaving the Main Square by Grodzka Street, we pass the tiny Church of St Adalbert (no 1) – the first church founded in Krakow.

Running parallel to Grodzka, Kanonicza Street is a charming street lined with recently renovated palaces and residences. Both Grodzka and Kanonicza lead to the foot of Wawel, the religious, spiritual and patriotic heart of Poland. Royal Castle (no 2) is the seat of Poland's kings for over 500 years and one of Europe's most splendid Renaissance royal residences.



Krakow sightseeing - Jewish Heritage Route – The District of Kazimierz in Krakow

Originally, Kazimierz, that got its name from its founder King Kazimierz Wielki (Kazimierz the Great), was an independent town. At the turn of the 15th century it became the centre of two cultures: Christian and Jewish. Many heritage buildings (especially sacral architecture) that bear testimony to the magnificence of these cultures can be admired to this day. The Jewish Heritage Route begins at very lively Centre for Jewish Culture (in Meisels's Street) and leads toward the Jewish temples – in turn: the Tempel Synagogue (Miodowa Street), built in 1862 for the Association of Progressive Israelites, Kupa Synagogue (Warszauer's Street) and Isaac Synagogue (Jakuba Street) – both from 17th century, and, last but not least, the High Synagogue (Jozef's Street) from 1590, the tallest of Krakow synagogues.

Krakow sightseeing - Jewish Heritage Route – The District of Kazimierz in Krakow

For almost seven hundred years, Krakow was home to a large Jewish community. This was all but extinguished during the II World War, yet the echoes of this world can still be felt across the city. Kazimierz now has a Jewish cultural center, several Jewish style restaurants with appropriate cooking and klezmer music every evening. Every year in June there is a festival of Jewish culture when music fills the streets, drawing a host of young Polish and international fans.

Tourist Attractions - Rynek Underground permanent exhibition

Type: Museum

Location: Old Town

Address: Main Square

The underground route will exhibit a unique archaeological reserve with remnants of early settlements, the huge cemetery and fragments of buildings, remembering the times of the Krakows Great Accommodations in 1257. The discoveries of archaeologists, but also discreetly used XXI century technology, multimedia installations and fictionalized documents will transfer the visitors in time and space and illustrates the history of Krakow and Krakow's long tradition of merchants.

Krakow Weather

Average temperature in Krakow:

June:

Average high	Average low
30	15

Attention :

You would need formal clothes. On the trips to the mine do not need special clothing but the only good shoes for walking on the ground.

Poland's climate is influenced by a continental climate from the east and a maritime climate from the west. As the result the weather is changeable, with significant differences from day to day.

Spring starts in March and is initially cold and windy, later becoming pleasantly warm and often very sunny.

The sun exposure lasts approximately 10 hours per day. The average annual rainfall in Krakow is around 60mm.

Money

Poland's national currency is zloty (PLN). One zloty equals 100 groszy.

Banknotes come in denominations of 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 zloty and there are 1, 2 and 5 zloty, and 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 groszy coins in circulation.

Foreign currency can be exchanged at the airport, banks and common exchange offices (Polish name - kantor).

Many hotels, restaurants, travel agencies, petrol stations and larger shops accept American Express, MasterCard and Visa cards. There are numerous cashpoints.

Polish cuisine

- A single main meal in the restaurants within the Old Town cost 20-70 PLN, a dessert about 8-12 PLN, a coffee – 5-10 PLN,. The price of a beer in a pub varies from PLN 6 to 12 .
- The majority of larger restaurants or pub accept credit cards.
